GREAT THINGS PLANNED FOR HOPKINS' FARMERS

Hopkins County Commercial Club
Working To Secure A County Agent

FOR AGRICULTURAL DEM- ONSTRATION AND RURAL WELFARE WORK

Half The Expense of Expert Will be Paid
Through U. S. Department of Agriculture

SNUG SUM SUBSCRIBED AT BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEETING

The most important meeting held by the Hopkins County Commercial Club was that of the Board of Directors, Wednesday afternoon at Madisonville, in conference with Dr. Fred Mutchler, State Agent, representing the United States Department of Agriculture in the extension of agricultural demonstration work. It was a day of achievement. Something tangible was done and it was a big something at that. The Commercial Club directors have practically become sponsors for the movement to secure for Hopkins County a county agent, to carry on this demonstration work here and devote his whole time and talent to bettering the farm and crop conditions of this county.

That the directors and a few members of the club present were in dead earnest was proven by their pledging $230 at the meeting, which was attended by little more than a dozen men. As a committee to continue the campaign for additional funds needed to carry out the plan the following were named: President J. T. Alexander, Secretary W. W. Smoak, and J. G. R. Hall, chairman of the Agricultural Committee. It is confidently expected that sufficient money will be raised, by private subscription or otherwise, to secure a man, expert in agriculture and fruit growing, to begin his work as County Agent for Hopkins County on October 1st.

Several counties in Kentucky have such agents and they are doing the greatest possible good to the sections they serve, in many ways. In Alabama this work is developed to a high state of efficiency, there being now a county agent for every county in that state. This farm demonstration work by the Department of Agriculture has only been in operation for about eight years and was begun in the cotton states in effort to overcome the loss caused by the boll weevil. Agents are sent to teach the farmers of the South how to grow other things than cotton and they have learned to such an extent that those who know now say the boll weevil has been a distinct blessing through having brought education to the farmer in this general demonstration work and the diversified money crops that followed. The money for this work has come from the General Educational Board. It is donated through the United States Department of Agriculture, which is responsible to the donors for its proper expenditure.

For the State of Kentucky the General Educational Board has given $22,500.00 a year, beginning the first day of October next. The expenditure of much of this amount has already been arranged for and the farmers of Hopkins county are very fortunate in having a county-wide organization like the Hopkins county Commercial Club to take up and make sure, as it is believed it will, the work of securing for this county a part of this fund to carry on this indispensable work here.

The plan of the work is the Out of the fund referred to the Department of Agriculture will pay $600 a year to the County Agent. As much or more is to be raised locally in the county by private subscription or by appropriation. Only by such cooperation can the work be undertaken. In other words the Department and the General Educational Board will only agree to help people who are willing also to help themselves. The example set by the few men who attended the Wednesday meeting and raised the fund stated should be quickly followed by other public spirited citizens, so that this arrangement may be made certain while the opportunity lasts. In some counties in Kentucky the Fiscal Court has appropriated the necessary funds, in others it has been done by private subscription and perhaps in others there has been joint action by citizens and Court. It is a small fund to be raised for so big and fruitful a purpose. Let us have it quickly.

The effort is toward economic production, to make the crop at a minimum cost, rather than to develop extensive acreage. The leading question of the Agent will be "Does Your Farm Pay?" If not the Agent is to work out a plan to make it pay. If it does pay, the work of the agent is to plan and suggest and demonstrate to make it pay more. As an illustration, in Alabama the average corn crop is about 17 bushels per acre while on the demonstration farms in that state the average is 33 bushels.

Back of all the practical work done by the Agent is the educational value of the work, that will bring the farmer to see visions of what he might do. Dr. Mutchler quoted a friend as having said that when a man reached the point where he saw such visions, "the rising bell has rung in his soul."

The county Agent would get, in each of several locations, accessible to the various sections of the county, a little plot of ground, of 20 or 40 or 60 acres, to be used under the Agent's direction, planted and cared for upon scientific methods, cultivated to any crop or fruit the land is suited for. The owner to furnish the capital and do as the Agent directs, upon the assurance at least that the new method will not cost more than the old. The Agent would be located at the county seat, where he would spend one day in each week at a place where he would be accessible to any farmer who might desire to go to him with a problem.

If any question arose, as arise they will, that the Agent could not himself solve at once, he has the entire strength and ability of the Kentucky Department of Agriculture and of the United States Department of Agriculture behind him to solve that problem. And all of this comes to the Farmer of Hopkins free of cost to him.

There will be corn demonstrations, alfalfa demonstrations and demonstrations in live stock feeding and growth, fruit culture and spraying and pruning of fruit trees, organization and instruction of girls poultry clubs, and everything that touches the farmers welfare and betterment. Supplementary work is done all so by a trained woman working with the problems of conveniences about the farmer's home and the problems of the farmers wives, and work along the lines of social welfare in rural districts.

All these things, and more, Dr. Mutchler set forth in his talk with the Commercial Club representatives. And he told of the social welfare work in Christian County, where the County Agent is holding sixteen meetings a month, of farmers and their wives, where they talk and plan about home life on the farm.

Those who attend the Wednesday meeting were: Jas. T. Alexander, president; Paul M. Moore vice-president; W. W. Smoak, secretary; E. G. McLeod, treasurer; (other directors) W. J. Dulin, Otto Fowler, M. K. Gordon and Jno G. B. Hall; (other members) Jas. K. Kash, G. W. Sybert, C. H. Murphy, Lee Gibson and E. B. Arnold.

Paul M. Moore will be glad to receive pledges from progressive citizens of Earlinton or any part of the county to swell this fund and make sure the completion of this splendid work for all the people and all the interests of Hopkins County. Let these pledges come NOW.

At the conclusion of the meeting Mr. Dulin took Dr. Mutchler and some of the directors out in his automobile to get a glimpse of some farm lands and an inspection of the soil.

Dr. Mutchler will visit Hopkins county again in a short time.

MRS. BEN T. ROBINSON COM- MITS SUICIDE

Had Been In Ill Health For a Long Time And Mind Was Weakened

ENTIRE COMMUNITY SHOCKED

The people of Mortons Gap and vicinity were shocked Wednesday noon by the sad news that Mrs. Ben T. Robinson, wife of the druggist at that place, had committed suicide. It was known that she had been in a dependent condition for some time on account of ill health but that she really meant to end her own life was not thought of.

There was to have been a kind of family reunion held at the residence on Wednesday and invitations had been sent to a number of relatives, some of whom had arrived. Just before the dinner hour, Mrs. Robinson secured a small vial of carbolic acid and going into the dining room passed her husband and said, "Good Bye, Ben, I am going to take this." Before Mr. Robinson could interfere she had managed to swallow a portion of it. He succeeded in getting the bottle from her and in doing so his hand was badly burned. Mrs. Robinson then went up stairs and fell across the bed.

Doctors Davis and Williams, of Mortons Gap, and Dr. Gardiner, of Madisonville, were hastily summoned. Drs. Williams and Davis arriving in a very few minutes but she was past human aid and died shortly afterward.

Mrs. Robinson was Miss Lizzie Harris and had been a resident of Mortons practically all her life. She was a member of the Christian church and was interred at Grapevine yesterday afternoon in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. She leaves a husband, four sons, Roy, Lisle, Carlestead and Thomas, one brother, Ed Harris of near Cerulean Springs, and a sister, Mrs. Coleman, of Madisonville, who have the deepest sympathy of the entire community.

Remarkable Cure of Dysentery

"I was attacked with dysentery about July 15th and used the doctor's medicine and other remedies with no relief, only getting worse all the time. I was unable to do anything and my weight dropped from 145 to 125 pounds. I suffered for about two months when I was advised to use Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I used two bottles of it and it gave me permanent relief." writes B. W. Hill, of Snow Hill, N.C. For sale by All Dealers.

Portions of the West

Chicago, Aug. 11--Prayers for rain in the parched regions of the West were offered yesterday on several churches. During the services the tattoo of showers on the roofs testified to the county of Nature in Northern Ill.

Many of the ministers discussed experiences of drouths of other years to show the efficacy of prayers, some of them giving authentic instances when prayers for rain were answered within a few hours.

Costly Treatment

"I was troubled with constipation and indigestion and spent hundreds of dollars for medicine and treatment," writes C. H. Hines, of Whitlow, Ark. "I went to a St. Louis hospital, also to a hospital in New Orleans, but no cure was effected. On returning home I began taking Chamberlain's Tablets, and worked right along. I used them for some time and am now all right." Sold by All Druggists.

MINING MEN WILL HOLD BIG NATIONAL MEETING

Convention Of American Mining Congress At Philadelphia In October

DESIRE OF OPERATORS TO BETTER SAFEGUARD LIVES OF MEN

"Safety First" Movements to be Shown in Moving Pictures

MINING SHOW AND MACHIN- ERY DEMONSTRATIONS ARE FEATURES

Washington Aug. 15.--Mining men representing the safety and welfare of more than two and one half million workers and a yearly output of two billions of dollars, will gather in Philadelphia the latter part of October to attend the sixteenth annual convention of the American Mining Congress to discuss mining problems and to witness the first national display of mining machinery ever held in this country.

In view of the rapid strides being made by the mining industry and the almost revolutionary changes in behalf of greater safety for the men, it is believed that this will be the greatest national rally ever held by any industry. With the changes have come problems of far reaching importance which will be discussed by men of county-wide prominence.

The safety feature will undoubtedly occupy a large place in both the convention and the mining show or exposition. The desire of the operators and mining men generally to better safeguard their men who work in the dark underground passages has led to a multitude of safety devices and this will be the opportunity for the mining man to decide for himself what is most efficient and best adapted to his work.

The West, which is very much interested in the conservation of human life in the mines will be largely represented at the convention and mining show. Members of the Congress and other interested men are now arranging for three special trans-continental trains that will bring them in safety and comfort from the Pacific coast to Philadelphia. One of these trains is to start from Los Angeles, another from San Francisco, and third from Seattle, Wash. These trains will pick up mining men from all the important mining camps in the West. The iron and copper men of Minnesota and Michigan are also planning a special train to the convention and it is expected that at least two trains will be made up at Chicago. The Illinois men are hoping to obtain authority from the state to take with them one of the mine rescue cars of the state, fully equipped with rescue and first-aid apparatus and a crew of trained men.

The great coal companies of Pennsylvania are now making arrangements for a number of their rescue cars to be on exhibition in Philadelphia. The exposition authorities have completed plans for a working coal mine in the basement of Horticultural Hall, in which the Mining Show is to be held, and in one part of the mine there will be a realistic demonstration of the work of the rescuers from the coal companies and the United States Bureau of Mines. Two or three of the biggest coal companies in Pennsylvania, that have developed the "Safety First" movement will show their methods in moving pictures. Different phases of this work will also be shown by the Bureau of Mines.

"The meeting of the best known and most progressive mining men in the world at this Philadelphia convention for the interchange of ideas and for better cooperative efforts promises to mark a new era for the industry," said James F. Callbreath, secretary of the American Mining Congress. "The Mining Show in itself, will lure every progressive operator in the country to view the latest in machinery and life-saving appliances. Best of all there will be an educational uplift for both the mining man and the public. The mining industry believes that publicity is educational. The mining industry in the past has been the victim of misunderstanding and ignorance. As a result of all this, serious problems have arisen and we are going to attempt to solve some of them at this great national rally. Because of this general misunderstanding, the burden of taxation upon the mining industry in recent years has been so largely increased in many states that the mining enterprises have ceased operation. In others an undue handicap has been placed upon competition with states operating under less burdensome conditions; and in other states a double system of taxation is required--first upon the total value of the property, and second, upon the output. A careful discussion of this subject will be presented at the convention and after a thorough discussion, it is hoped that the convention will agree upon a general theory upon which a proper system of taxation shall be based."

Good Reason for His Enthusiasm

When a man has suffered for several days with colic, diarrhoea or other form of bowel complaint and is then cured sound and well by one or two doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, as is often the case, it is but natural that he should be enthusiastic in his praise of the remedy, and especially is this the case of a severe attack when life is threatened. Try it when in need of such a remedy. It never fails. Sold by All Druggists.

VOLCANOES OF ALASKA ALL SHOWING ACTIVITY

Freak Island of Rogoslof in Bering Sea
Disappears for a Time and Returns in New Formation

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 12.—Rogoslof the famous freak volcanic island of Bering Sea, is again performing contortions and every volcano of the vast mountain range of western Alaska and the Aleutian Islands, is emitting smoke, steam or vapor, according to Captain C. O. Crisp of the revenue cutter Unalga, which returned to Seattle today from her first cruise to Bering Sea.

Capt. Crisp said that that Bogoslof Island, which has interested scientists since its first appearance in 1906 had undergone another change since it was visited last year.

Natives told him that the island entirely disappeared for a time and when it reappeared above the surface its shape was different and it was several hundred yards from its former position.

"Mount Kanaga, Mount Kiska, Mount Makushin, Mount Carlisle and Mount Shishaldin are all emitting steam and showing signs of activity," said Capt. Crisp. "Mount Katmai, which was in violent eruption in 1912, is sending out smoke, but there has been no discharge of volcanic ash this year as far as I could learn."

FOREST NOTES

A Russian scientist claims to have discovered an incubation for use against forest insects.

There are nearly six thousand professional foresters in Germany who are associated with various technical societies.

The university of Washington has secured the use of two sections of land on the Snoqualmie natural forest in connection with its forestry courses.

A tool used to fight fires on the California forests combines a rake, spade, and hoe. It is compact, so that it can be carried on horseback, and weighs less than 5½ pounds.

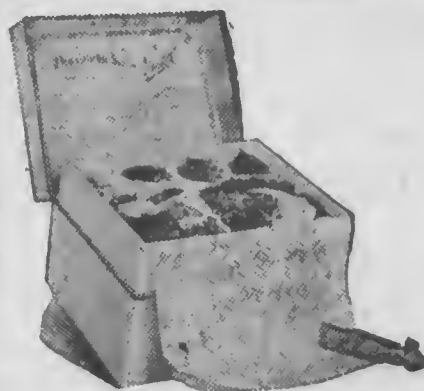

In an increase in timber sales this year and in a decrease in receipts from timber trespass as compared with last year national forest officers see a growing use of the forests and respect for the federal forests policy.

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Catron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good. I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without its tiring me, and am doing my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of wonderful success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.
